Examination in Law & Practice of Patents

Subject to there being a sufficient number of candidates, it is proposed to hold a written examination in the law and practice of Patents on 11 April 2019. The latest date for receipt of applications from persons who wish to sit this written examination is 29 March 2019.

Candidates wishing to be examined must have submitted in advance to the Controller an application form and fee of €200 not later than 29 March 2019.

Applicants who wish to sit the examination will be notified of the venue and furnished with other relevant information in due course.

Applications for Patents From 08/01/2019 to 13/02/2019

The names of applicants are in alphabetical order. In the case of joint applicants, each name is given independently. The title of the invention should not be regarded as an exhaustive indication of the subject-matter. The date immediately following the title is that on which the application was filed; in the case of a divisional application, the filing date of the earlier application is added within parentheses. In the case of a Convention application the Convention country and priority date(s) claimed are given in square brackets and where an application claimed the priority of an earlier application filed at the office, this information is given within the square brackets. The number is that of the application and should be used for correspondence purposes up to the date of grant of a patent. The letter S preceding the number indicates that the application is for a short-term patent. A new number will be given when a patent is granted and this new number should be quoted in all correspondence subsequent to grant.

Patents Granted Under Section 34

The number of a patent is given in heavy type; the letter S preceding the number indicates a short-term patent. The code numbers following the title of each invention are those of the International Patent Classification. The date of filing the application follows the proprietor's name. The patent application number, which follows the date of application in parenthesis, has been superseded by the patent number. In the case of an application claiming the priority of an earlier application, the name of the country where the earlier application was made and the date of the earlier application are shown in square brackets.

By virtue of Section 65(3), the application relating to any short-term patent appearing in the following list whose date of filing is later than the date which is 18 months prior to the date of this issue of the Journal becomes open to public inspection as and from the date of this issue of the Journal.

- 86963 A coupling for a towing vehicle. Int. Cl. (2019.01) A01B 59/00. DROMONE ENGINEERING LIMITED 01 February 2013 (20130032) [United Kingdom-02 February 2012]

Patents Granted Under European Patent Convention Designating Ireland

The Irish serial number appears first followed, respectively, by the proprietor's name, the date of filing of the application, the filing number and the European Patent Office publication number.

If the specification of the European patent was published in French or German the word 'French' or 'German', as appropriate, will appear as the last item of information.

Date of Registration: 13 January 2019.

Medical device design protective structure that provides a gap and vent(s) over a wound. The gap provides a space between the wound and top of the device. The surface design is a rounded, snag free surface design. The structure is strong enough to withstand loads and collisions so that it does not collapse under loads. Outer design shape to be flat to take loads and distribute loads away from wound site. Vents to be large enough to drain exudate fluid and small enough to prevent dirt from entering wound. Design to enable capillary action of exudate. Device size and shape to be made to cover all wound types and sizes. Size and shape to be customisable for each specific wound as needed. Device to be made from biocompatible materials and sterilised. Device Stacking option for extra protection if required.
